Your Planetary Day

While the calendar we use in the West dates from the 1500s, the seven days of the week have repeated without interruption for over two millennia. From ancient times, each day of the week has been associated with the Sun, Moon or one of the five visible planets. The weekday on which you were born shows where you stand in this ancient seven-fold cycle, and gives you a special link with the quality of its planetary ruler.

You were born on a Monday.

Monday is named for the Moon, symbolizing all that receives and contains, including the mother, cradling arms, and the home. The Moon's day is the second of seven stages, signifying the division of unity (Stage One, Sunday) into conscious and unconscious, day and night. While the Sun is the unmoving center, the Moon rules all that periodically waxes and wanes. Of the seven directions of space, the Moon's direction is down, inward, and toward the past, toward the hidden night-side of imagination and dreams. In the Kabbalah, the Moon is ruled by Gabriel, angel of dreams and of hope. "Monday's child is fair of face." — Harper's Weekly, 1887.

About Personal Numerology

The report that follows explores the numerological meaning of your birth date and the full name that was given to you at birth. Its aim is to make you more aware of the tendencies and patterns in your life, so that you can live more consciously, and more fully become the person you were meant to be.

As you read the following pages, remember that they describe pure types for each number. No one, of course, exhibits these character traits in their pure form. Instead, each of us is multi-dimensional, made up of many energy imperatives vying for expression. Some energies harmonize easily, while others are at cross-purposes, causing us to live with contradictions and inner conflicts. Our task is to honor all parts of ourselves and work at bringing our disparate selves into some kind of balance and cooperation. By making us more aware of our inner tendencies, numerology can help us to do this all- important work on ourselves.

In our families and other groups of which we are a part, some behaviors are encouraged and others are discouraged. If who we are wasn't acceptable, we probably contorted ourselves to be what others wanted us to be. If so, we may have become what is called a "turn-type."

For example, we may negatively manifest a number by expressing its opposite, as when the independent number 1 type becomes extremely dependent. Alternatively, the energy is out of balance and expressed extremely, as when the daring number 1 type becomes foolhardy. Or the energy is not developed enough, so that the number 1 is cowardly instead of courageous.

Because we feel that a certain trait is unacceptable and unworthy of us according to the biases of our family, superiors or peers, we may not be able to relate to it in ourselves. We may then spend many years discovering who we really are apart from other people's expectations of us.

Studies such as numerology can help us find our way out of this maze, orienting us toward our true being and the highest manifestation of what we are. They can give us an objective picture of our strengths and weaknesses, show us our place in the larger scheme of things, and help us find the hidden gold in our characters, which we may not have even suspected that we had.

How Numerology Works. Through the use of ancient principles, numerology can derive a world of meaning from your birthdate and birth name. In the course of your life other numbers may become important for you, and you will probably acquire other names, but, like your astrological birth chart, the numerological vibrations at the very beginning of your life set the tone for all that follows.

To find the meaning inherent in your day, month and year of birth, numerologists add the digits in various ways. Most totals turn out to be more than one digit. They therefore reduce them to a single digit by adding the digits together. Whenever a total turns out to be a master number like 11 or 22, however, it is left as-is. These doubled numbers have a special significance, and are given special interpretations.

To find the numerological meaning of your name, numerology assigns a number to each letter of the alphabet. In the Pythagorean system used in this report, A = 1, B = 2, and so on through the first nine letters, and then we repeat the cycle through the rest of the alphabet. We then total the numbers corresponding to the vowels, the numbers corresponding to the consonants, and the numbers corresponding to all the letters to determine specific things about your character.

Each digit from 1 to 9 represents a specific stage in a cycle and has its own set of associations. In general, the odd numbers are considered introverted, in the sense of being primarily focused on inner life. The even numbers tend toward extroversion: that is, being primarily focused on outer activities. The numbers 1, 6, and 22, however, are considered dual in nature.

This said, let us now look first at your basic character and the major themes in your life.

Your Life Path

The total of the day, month and year of your birth is called by numerologists the Life Path, Life Lesson, Birth Path, Birth Force or, sometimes, the Destiny number. This number is chosen by nature rather than by you or your parents, and it reflects the season and historical era of your birth. As its names suggest, it shows your mission in life, your life work and what the universe intends for you. It shows the opportunities you must seize in order to make the most of your potential. Following the life path that has been given to you will enable you to avoid continual discord and frustration, and to unfold in the way that is best for your nature. When you find your true place in the world, you will feel at home.

Your birthdate total is 22/4.

Your Life Path of 22 is a master number. This means that your destiny is a truly special one, and carries the promise of tremendous power and influence. You must handle this power carefully, however, because it has the potential for either great creativity or great destruction. It is particularly important for you to act for the welfare of others, and harness your resources for the good. Gifted with far-reaching vision, you can then make an impact on the world and bring about great transformations.

Before you can fully live up to the full potential of the master number 22, you may need to practice living on its lower, reduced vibration of 4. This means developing the ability to work steadily to get the job done in the most effective and efficient way possible. It means developing self-discipline, sticking to a routine long enough to become a dependable resource for others and long enough to get something practical accomplished. You need to be able to deal successfully with logic, facts and the material world. Then you will be capable of becoming the visionary master builder promised by your Life Path of 22.

What Motivates You in Life

We now move on to the name that you were given at birth. We first look at the total of the vowels in your full birth name, because this shows the emotional force that drives all that you do. Variously known as the Motivation, Soul Urge, Heart's Desire, or Inner Self number, the vowel total shows what you want out of life. Along with the Impression and Expression numbers that will be discussed below, it is a basic component of your character.

The vowel total in your name is 4.

With 4 as a Motivation number, you need to live an orderly life governed by definite rules. The basic criterion of your life is practicality. Whatever you do must have a definite purpose and payoff. Being an honest, straightforward person, you have no patience with pretense. A product of the old school, you have well-defined loyalties. You value your home and your job, and take pride in your work. Do, however, watch out for a tendency to be narrow-minded.

Colors and gems have number vibrations, too. Your Motivation color is green and your Motivation gem is the emerald. Wear these when you want to relax and restore your energies.

More about Your Emotions and Motivations

The first vowel in your first name augments or mitigates the force of the vowel total, and gives additional information about your emotional nature and underlying motivations in life. It manifests differently depending on whether the vowel sound is long or short. The long vowel gives a more direct and forthright expression, while the expression of the short vowel is more muted.

The first vowel in your name is E.

“E” feels changeable and restless, and gives you a love of freedom and excitement. You tend to be on the move, always on the lookout for the next interesting event. For you, variety is truly the spice of life. You are mentally stimulating and stimulated mentally by all that passes before you. Preferring to remain unfettered and free to explore new horizons, you find it difficult to take root. A “people” person, you are outgoing and have many friends who enjoy your optimism and good humor. You also work well with your hands and are very versatile.

The Impression You Give to Others

The total of the consonants in your name is known as the Impression, Personality, Outer Self or Adapted Self number. As its names suggest, this number signifies your persona, the face you show to the world. It shows the vibrations that you project, how others see you, and the kind of impression that you make on those around you. This has its origin in your illusions and fantasies, the world you create for yourself in daydreams. Given enough energy, your fantasies become reality, because you tend to become who you think you are.

Your consonant total is 3.

Having the Impression number 3, you dream of being a very popular person: magnetically attractive, and even a sex symbol. You are the actor on center stage, the movie star, the life of the party, charming everyone with your wit. Since you are conscious of the image you project, only the latest and best in fashion will do. You may dream of the jet-set life or another glamorous lifestyle in which you are the star.

Your Impression color is yellow, and your Impression gem is the topaz. Wear these when you want to be sociable and enjoy the company of others.

The Way You Express Yourself

The total of all the letters in your full name is variously called the Expression, Mission or Life Purpose number. Composed of both the vowels and the consonants, it represents the blending of your inner and outer selves. It thus shows the natural expression of your goals and desires: what you do best, and, by extension, your talents and career potential. It also indicates how you deal with the outside world: your style of solving problems, getting things done, and negotiating with others to attain what you would consider success.

Your name total is 7.

The Expression number 7 makes you an intellectual who needs to analyze and investigate the dynamics of life. In search of meaning, you are drawn to the psychological, the scientific and the occult, and you can master many levels of understanding. People may often misinterpret your natural dignity as aloofness. Your constant search for perfection and the need for an intellectual solution to problems can sometimes bring frustration, but you have the potential for bringing new kinds of understanding to the world.

When you want to be businesslike, try wearing violet as your Expression color and the aquamarine or amethyst as your Expression gem.

Careers Offering the Best Self-Expression

With 7 as your Expression number, consider these kinds of jobs:

The Boss: judge, university dean or administrator, editor, foreman or superintendent, bank director.

On Stage: clergyman, religious leader, teacher, professor.

Service: doctor, dentist, psychologist, surgeon, banker, lawyer, detective, watchmaker, florist, appraiser, auditor, and any type of analyst, including political analyst, stock analyst or investment counselor, and astrologer.

Just You: accountant, librarian, historian, architect, writer, mathematician, philosopher, designer, creator of delicate handwork, engraver, antique dealer.

Technical: scientist, engineer, technical expert, astronomer, chemist, biologist, geologist, physicist, worker in electronics, computers or data processing.

Best Bet: Any job requiring analysis and synthesis of information.

The Power You Can Achieve in Maturity

The total of the day, month and year of your birth and your full name at birth is known variously as the Power, Maturity, Reality, Real Self, Final Opportunity, Destiny or Goal Power number. A summation of both your name and your birthdate, this number shows how the two principal streams of energy converge to fulfill the purposes of your true self. The Power number is of great significance because it gives a clue as to what your ultimate life purpose might be.

This vibration usually becomes manifest only in the later part of your life. In the first half of life it tends to exist only as a potential. In these earlier years you live through many experiences that temper and define your character and aptitudes. Not until the age of 35 or 40 do most people live through enough life events to find their life purpose and develop it to the point where it becomes their main focus and direction. It is then that fulfillment comes. But this is usually achieved only after many false starts, and years of struggling to gain self-knowledge.

Finding your right place in life is gratifying. If you have not pushed through to this achievement, you can be dissatisfied and unhappy. You may feel at loose ends, without direction, rudderless and ill at ease. But if you have lived your life in accord with the purpose that was meant to be fulfilled in this life, you will find contentment and peace of mind.

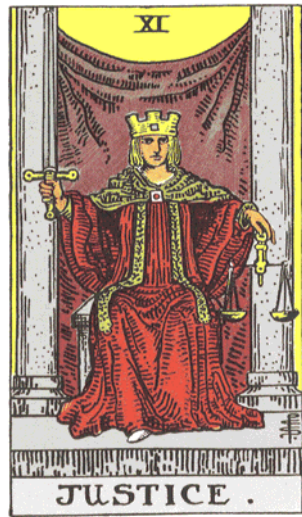

What follows is the mature expression of your Power number. Mature development is not about living out someone else's idea of what you should be. It has more to do with honoring your own way of being in the world and moving from your own center. It is about trusting the process of unfoldment that exists within each of us and making this your guiding principle.

The total of your name and birthdate is 11/2.

A Power number of 11 is too high and intense a vibration for many people to live up to, at least at first. Most people who have 11 as a Power number will begin by operating on the lower vibration of 2. For you this means perfecting the art of functioning in groups or as a couple, and exercising your emotional intelligence and people skills to mediate and bring harmony between opposing factions. You may also take your pursuit of harmony into art, music or dance. Twos have a reputation for having a kind and sensitive nature, and are happy to remain in the background, leaving the spotlight for more extroverted types.

As time passes and you become more skilled at life, you may leap into the higher orbit of the 11 vibration from time to time, possibly with increasing frequency over the years. This is a whole new sphere where fame is a definite possibility. You will develop a more far-reaching vision and a wider (perhaps worldwide) sphere of action. As you draw more and more upon your higher mind, you will increase in intuitive abilities, possibly even becoming psychic. Brimming with insights to share, you are likely to be drawn to teaching, speaking or writing. This could be on a variety of topics. With your spiritual inspirations you may become a preacher or religious leader. With your compassionate idealism and sense of justice, you may crusade for causes such as peace. Or with your original, inventive mind you may find yourself on the cutting edge of science or technology. Whatever you do on your 11 Power vibration, your life will most likely be an extremely active one of successfully meeting challenges and taking big risks.

Tarot Key 11: Justice

To gain further insights about your Power number, it can help to look at the Tarot trump that corresponds to it. In your case, this is the card called Justice. The card shows her seated, holding the scales of balance and the sword that cuts through to the truth. The balance tries out first one side, and then the other, before achieving equilibrium. Then the sword makes a clean decision, at one stroke severing right from wrong. In numerology, the Justice Card represents the higher vibration of Key 2, the High Priestess. Whereas the High Priestess bridges the opposites of the conscious and the unconscious in the inner, personal realm, Justice mediates between persons and ideas in the outward, social realm, and must actively make a decision.

In some Tarot decks, Key 11 is the card called Strength. This is also a card that you might want to contemplate.

Your Karmic Lessons

Karma numbers are digits that are completely missing in the letters of your name as given at birth. Most people have one or more Karma numbers. These missing digits serve as a guide to the areas of your life and personality that may be lacking. Such areas will benefit from special attention. If you ignore these blind spots, life can have a painful way of making you notice them. This, however, can eventually spur you forward on the path to wisdom. When you develop yourself in these areas, you will feel much more whole and complete.

The number 2 is missing in your name.

With a Karma number of 2, you may lack patience and tend to be overly sensitive. You may have experiences where you are forced to learn to get along better with others.

The number 3 is missing in your name.

With a 3 Karma number, you may lack self-confidence and have problems expressing yourself. Contact with the public can help you to overcome your inhibitions.

The number 4 is missing in your name.

With a Karma number of 4, you may have to fight a tendency toward laziness and a lack of focus and concentration. You'll strengthen your character when you cultivate discipline and make an effort to work steadily for what you want.

The number 8 is missing in your name.

With an 8 Karma number, you are ambitious, but your judgment may not always be the best. You must learn the value of money, and find out how to use power responsibly.

Your Subconscious Response

Your Subconscious Response is related to how many Karma numbers you have. It shows the way you tend to react in emergencies, when you have no time to consult your intellect.

Your Subconscious Response number is 5.

When the going gets rough, you tend to become very nervous and talk a lot. Though you may have trouble settling on one practical solution, you can be a useful source of ideas about what should be done.

Your Youth, Maturity and Later Years

So far, we've discussed the number vibrations that stay with you throughout your life. Now we move on to the three major periods of your life as shown by your Life Cycle numbers. These are derived from reducing the digits in your month, day and year of birth. The sum of the month digits describes the first period; the day, the second period; and the year, the third period.

Your First Life Cycle starts at birth and lasts until age 15.

Its number is 4.

At an age that is naturally concerned with experiment and play, your youth is full of hard work, practical concerns and restrictions. Don't worry. The stability, self-discipline and tolerance for routine that you develop in your First Cycle can be made to pay off later, giving you a secure foundation that allows you to enjoy yourself. You don't readily express your emotional needs, but you still desire much affection and praise. It is good during this period to learn to work with your hands, and to wait to cultivate your emotional self at the appropriate time.

During the First Life Cycle, your Life Path number and your First Minor Challenge number are also especially important influences.

Your Second Life Cycle starts at age 15 and lasts until age 42.

Its number is 8.

During your middle period you will be drawn to accumulating wealth and power, so this is an excellent cycle for business success. More than at other times, you have the ability to influence your environment in an efficient and result-oriented way. Your success is assured if you devise a plan and manage your life and finances well.

During this Life Cycle or the next, your Power number generally begins to manifest.

Your Third Life Cycle starts at age 42 and lasts until death.

Its number is 1.

Your later years can be dynamic and fertile with accomplishment if you're able to remain self-reliant. You'll have to depend on yourself and choose your own path, but you'll never be bored. Focus on new ideas or on giving new life to old ones. There should be action enough to keep you going to the very end.

Major Decision or Turning Points in Your Life

Your Turning Points or Pinnacles are also derived from your full birthdate. Each of them defines a period in your life and the special issues that you will face during that period. As their name suggests, Turning Points show points of choice where you need to make decisions. Besides showing the issues at stake, the Turning Point number indicates the choice that will be best for you. Turning Points are like tests that you must pass before proceeding forward. The happiness that you feel in a given Turning Point period depends on the choices you've made and the skills you've developed when faced with the previous Turning Point.

Your First Turning Point starts at birth and lasts until age 34.
Its number is 3.

This youthful Turning Point offers a chance to expand socially and artistically. Learn now to be cheerful and creative. To make the most of your creative potential, you will need to learn to apply yourself steadily and not scatter your energies. You may then have a chance to bask in the limelight and enjoy the applause.

Your Second Turning Point starts at age 35 and lasts until age 44.
Its number is 9.

In the next nine years of your life you will be called to seek out ways serving the world and your fellow human beings. This could be brought on by personal losses that stimulate you to seek higher forms of happiness than mere ego gratification. This is an ideal time to develop compassion and to learn to sustain yourself with an appreciation of all the beauty in your life.

Your Third Turning Point starts at age 45 and lasts until age 54.
Its number is 3.

This 3 vibration in the prime of your life demands that you now actualize your creative powers. Your imagination is fertile, and this is a great time to express yourself, especially in words. This is also a chance for networking and making yourself known, and it can be a time when you have the choice of wearing prosperity badly or well.

Your Fourth Turning Point starts at age 55 and lasts until death.
Its number is 5.

In the last period of your life, a 5 vibration calls you to overturn your old routines and renew yourself with travel, new ideas, and possibly even a new lifestyle. Your choice to do something a bit risky will keep you feeling remarkably young for your years. If you go rigid and try to barricade yourself safely away from the possibility of change, it can have a nasty way of seeking you out anyway. It's best to hang loose and roll with it if it comes. Your life will be so much more interesting that way.

The Challenges You Will Meet

Everyone is born with special lessons to be learned. Again, your full birth date has inherent in it two Minor Challenges that are usually presented to you earlier in life, and a Major Challenge that is lifelong but which you will probably get to master only later in life.

Challenges may at first present themselves to you as external obstacles to your progress, but they arise from the deficiencies that you are born with, parts that are lacking or underdeveloped. Once you can determine exactly what the weak link is, you can make a conscious effort to strengthen that trait within yourself. This takes willpower and may sometimes feel as if you are going against the grain, but it pays off abundantly in terms of progress and success in life. As you tackle each challenge, your fears are pushed back, your scope enlarges, and you feel more comfortable in the world.

Your First Minor Challenge number is 4.

The First Minor Challenge usually crops up early in life. When its number is 4, you will need to learn how to work effectively before you can do much else in the world. In youth, the lesson is usually to learn to settle down and concentrate. Later on, it is often to avoid becoming a “grind” and letting work take over your whole life. The challenge, anyway, is to give work its proper place, and learn a balance between work and play.

Your Second Minor Challenge number is 7.

The Second Minor Challenge is about aspects of your character that you need to work on during your Second Life Cycle, from about ages 35 to 62. With a Challenge of 7, you may be so caught up in your inner life that you have a hard time connecting with the outer world. This could take the form of depression, in which your energy is unavailable to you because it is working deep beneath the surface of your consciousness. It could also work out as pursuing an impossible purity, which causes you to feel so deeply critical of the world that you shun it. When you learn to come out of your ivory tower and give more of yourself to others, the world will feel like a much lovelier place to you.

Your Major Challenge number is 3.

You face your Major Challenge throughout life. Most likely, however, you will find yourself needing to do the most work on it during your Third Life Cycle, after the lesser challenges have been met. With a Challenge number of 3, you will feel impeded until you learn to overcome the barriers to the free expression of your natural talents. Cultivate your communication skills, and allow yourself to relax and play. When you learn to do this, your creative talents will flourish.

Your Best Activities for the Year

Your Personal Year number combines your birth month and day with the current year. Personal Year numbers go in a recurring nine-year cycle of development. Each time you go around the cycle you have a chance to do things with added wisdom and skill. Keeping your activities in tune with your current year vibration can make your existence more harmonious and keep your unfoldment upon its intended track.

Some numerologists believe that the new personal year number begins on January 1st of the new year. Others believe that it doesn't change until your birthday on that year, so that up until your birthday you would be using the personal year number for the preceding calendar year.

Your Personal Year number beginning on Jan 1 2005 is 19/1

A 1 Personal Year begins a new cycle. This is a time to make a fresh start, a time to plant seeds that will mature in the next nine years. In this opening phase of a new cycle you should make a special effort to maintain your independence and individuality, make your own decisions, and rely on your own abilities and instincts. Stay at the forefront, and do not take a back seat to anyone. This is the year to focus on your ideas, your needs, and the fulfillment of your dreams. Once you get your own thing going, you will be better able to relate to another person in the next stage of the cycle. So for now, exercise your own creative powers as fully as possible, and use all that fresh new energy to plunge ahead into new areas that you can develop more fully later. In all things this, year, Initiate.

Your Personal Year number beginning on Jan 1 2006 is 20/2

In a 2 Personal Year, you become softer and more receptive, and your focus naturally turns toward partnership and cooperation with others. It is time to seek out a person who will help you to crystallize your dreams. Then you should listen to your partner, be diplomatic and patient, and perfect the art of working as a team in a spirit of respect and harmony. When two hearts come together in a common effort, in an atmosphere of give-and-take and mutual regard, you can accomplish wondrous things. As receptive as you are to another person, you should also be receptive to your own inner knowing. In all things, the keyword this year is Accommodate.

- 1: Best day to start something. Good for promoting yourself.
- 2: Try especially hard to be agreeable and to get along with others.
- 3: Be cheerful; be creative; buy something nice. Spoil yourself!
- 4: Do something constructive. Make a schedule and stick to it.
- 5: Get out there and do something you've been dreaming of doing.
- 6: A cozy kind of day best spent with the family and at home.
- 7: Spend time alone, and read a book. A day to sort out problems.
- 8: A day for business and finance. Keep cool and in control.
- 9: Finish up old business, and don't start anything new.
- 11: Forget practicalities. A great day to communicate your ideas.
- 22: A truly special day! Now you can go for the results for which you have long planned and schemed.
- 33: A blessed day for feeling in touch with that which is higher and greater than yourself.
- 44: Seize this day to do something that has lasting value for the world.

Where Do We Go from Here?

If this report has aroused your curiosity and you want to learn more, you may find that exploring your numbers with a deck of Tarot cards is an excellent means for further self- reflection.

Suppose that your birth date were August 19, 1962. The Tarot trump that you would look at for the month would be 8 (Strength, or in some decks, Justice). For the day, you would look at 19 (the Sun), $1+9=10$ (the Wheel of Fortune), and, reducing it even further, $1+0=1$ (the Magician). For the year, you would look at $1+9+6+2=18$ (the Moon), and possibly also $1+8=9$ (the Hermit).

These cards would have something to say about you and how you express these traits as you follow your destiny. Our example birth date would have the Sun in Leo, and trump 19, the Sun, would reinforce the Leo symbolism. You could see that the person is a hard worker (8) with a sunny disposition (19) who is aware of the changes in fortune that life can bring (10). Extremely creative (1), he is also a sensitive, caring person who is tuned in to other people's feelings (18).

It is instructive to buy a Tarot deck, put one of your cards up for a few days, and mull over the symbolism. Remember that there are no truly negative numbers or cards. All participate in the experiences of the soul as it passes through life.

Even trump 15, the Devil, has its place. Everyone has traits that create stumbling blocks or weaknesses. When we work to overcome these we achieve maturity and become more sympathetic to the weaknesses that we see in others. This may be an important focus for a soul with the number 15 prominent.

Also, trump 13, the so-called Death card, is often misunderstood. Remember that in the cycle of seasons the leaves fall and winter comes, but this death is only the precursor of the life that bursts forth in the spring. Life is not all white light and bubbles. There are dark clouds of pain and frustration as well. It's all part of the cycle.

Whatever you find your numbers to be, remember that nobody has it all down pat. We all have plenty to learn. We do have a choice, however. We can, if we wish, fight against our destiny or try to ignore it. Or we can, as the great psychoanalyst C.G. Jung put it, "do willingly what we must do by necessity." Viewing ourselves through the lens of studies such as numerology, the Tarot and astrology, we gain a clearer picture of what our own necessity is, and can then travel more consciously on our life's intended path.
