Your Planetary Day

While the calendar we use in the West dates from the 1500s, the seven days of the week have repeated without interruption for over two millennia. From ancient times, each day of the week has been associated with the Sun, Moon or one of the five visible planets. The weekday on which you were born shows where you stand in this ancient seven-fold cycle, and gives you a special link with the quality of its planetary ruler.

You were born on a Saturday.

This is the day of Saturn, associated with the Greek Chronos, god of time and the scythe-carrying ruler of endings, limitation and boundaries — and therefore of form and solid objects. Saturn rules all that is tangible and material, most especially the mineral kingdom. Saturn's metal is lead; his colors, earth hues and dark shades like black and navy. As a planet, Saturn is the archetype of the elder who embodies rigidity, but also authority and substance. Traditionally, the sin of Saturn was covetousness; his virtue, prudence. In the Kabbalah, Saturn is ruled by Orphiel, angel of care and solicitude. On the Kabbalistic Tree of Life, Saturn is associated with Binah, one of the highest Sephiroth, which signifies the Great Mother, the principle of Form and of Understanding. "Saturday's child must work for a living." — Harper's Weekly, 1887.

About Personal Numerology

The report that follows explores the numerological meaning of your birth date and the full name that was given to you at birth. Its aim is to make you more aware of the tendencies and patterns in your life, so that you can live more consciously, and more fully become the person you were meant to be.

As you read the following pages, remember that they describe pure types for each number. No one, of course, exhibits these character traits in their pure form. Instead, each of us is multi-dimensional, made up of many energy imperatives vying for expression. Some energies harmonize easily, while others are at cross-purposes, causing us to live with contradictions and inner conflicts. Our task is to honor all parts of ourselves and work at bringing our disparate selves into some kind of balance and cooperation. By making us more aware of our inner tendencies, numerology can help us to do this all-important work on ourselves.

In our families and other groups of which we are a part, some behaviors are encouraged and others are discouraged. If what we are wasn't acceptable, we probably contorted ourselves to be what others wanted us to be. If so, we may have become what is called a "turn-type."

For example, we may negatively manifest a number by expressing its opposite, as when the independent number 1 type becomes extremely dependent. Alternatively, the energy is out of balance and expressed extremely, as when the daring number 1 type becomes foolhardy. Or the energy is not developed enough, so that the number 1 is cowardly instead of courageous.

Because we feel that a certain trait is unacceptable and unworthy of us according to the biases of our family, superiors or peers, we may not be able to relate to it in ourselves. We may then spend many years discovering who we really are apart from other people's expectations of us.

Studies such as numerology can help us find our way out of this maze, orienting us toward our true being and the highest manifestation of what we are. They can give us an objective picture of our strengths and weaknesses, show us our place in the larger scheme of things, and help us find the hidden gold in our characters, which we may not have even suspected that we had.

How Numerology Works. Through the use of ancient principles, numerology can derive a world of meaning from your birthdate and birth name. In the course of your life other numbers may become important for you, and you will probably acquire other names, but, like your astrological birth chart, the numerological vibrations at the very beginning of your life set the tone for all that follows.

To find the meaning inherent in your day, month and year of birth, numerologists add the digits in various ways. Most totals turn out to be more than one digit. They therefore reduce them to a single digit by adding the digits together. Whenever a total turns out to be a master number like 11 or 22, however, it is left as-is. These doubled numbers have a special significance, and are given special interpretations.

To find the numerological meaning of your name, numerology assigns a number to each letter of the alphabet. In the Pythagorean system used in this report, A = 1, B = 2, and so on through the first nine letters, and then we repeat the cycle through the rest of the alphabet. We then total the numbers corresponding to the vowels, the numbers corresponding to the consonants, and the numbers corresponding to all the letters to determine specific things about your character.

Each digit from 1 to 9 represents a specific stage in a cycle and has its own set of associations. In general, the odd numbers are considered introverted, in the sense of being primarily focused on inner life. The even numbers tend toward extroversion: that is, being primarily focused on outer activities. The numbers 1, 6, and 22, however, are considered dual in nature.

This said, let us now look first at your basic character and the major themes in your life.

Your Life Path

The total of the day, month and year of your birth is called by numerologists the Life Path, Life Lesson, Birth Path, Birth Force or, sometimes, the Destiny number. This number is chosen by nature rather than by you or your parents, and it reflects the season and historical era of your birth. As its names suggest, it shows your mission in life, your life work and what the universe intends for you. It shows the opportunities you must seize in order to make the most of your potential. Following the life path that has been given to you will enable you to avoid continual discord and frustration, and to unfold in the way that is best for your nature. When you find your true place in the world, you will feel at home.

Your birthdate total is 1.

With a Life Path of 1, you have a destiny to stand on your own, to believe in yourself, your own ideas and your own potential. Yours will be the life of the leader and the pioneer. Being a unique individual, you can follow your own path and live free from many of the rules that govern others. You may, however, have to fight to live the way you want and to accomplish what you want to do. Nevertheless, you must not conform or give up your goals.

What Motivates You in Life

We now move on to the name that you were given at birth. We first look at the total of the vowels in your full birth name, because this shows the emotional force that drives all that you do. Variously known as the Motivation, Soul Urge, Heart's Desire, or Inner Self number, the vowel total shows what you want out of life. Along with the Impression and Expression numbers that will be discussed below, it is a basic component of your character.

The vowel total in your name is 9.

With 9 as a Motivation number, you thirst after knowledge and enjoy sharing it with others. Dedicated to that which is universal, you are the eternal student of life, always in search of better understanding. You have humanitarian ideals, and sincerely desire to improve life's conditions. You tend to react emotionally and romantically, and are as much in love with the idea of love as with a person. When help is needed, you are capable of considerable self-sacrifice.

Colors and gems have number vibrations, too. Your Motivation colors are all colors in the brightest hues. Your Motivation gem is the opal. Wear these when you want to relax and restore your energies.

The Impression You Give to Others

The total of the consonants in your name is known as the Impression, Personality, Outer Self or Adapted Self number. As its names suggest, this number signifies your persona, the face you show to the world. It shows the vibrations that you project, how others see you, and the kind of impression that you make on those around you. This has its origin in your illusions and fantasies, the world you create for yourself in daydreams. Given enough energy, your fantasies become reality, because you tend to become who you think you are.

Having the Impression number 4, you dream of being a strong, down-to-earth sort of person who is the most necessary part of the lives of your family and friends. Composed of both the vowels and the consonants, it represents the blending of your inner and outer selves. It thus shows the natural expression of your goals and desires: what you do best, and, by extension, your talents and career potential. It also indicates how you deal with the outside world: your style of solving problems, getting things done, and negotiating with others to attain what you would consider success.

The Power You Can Achieve in Maturity

The total of the day, month and year of your birth and your full name at birth is known variously as the Power, Maturity, Reality, Real Self, Final Opportunity, Destiny or Goal Power number. A summation of both your name and your birthdate, this number shows how the two principal streams of energy converge to fulfill the purposes of your true self. The Power number is of great significance because it gives a clue as to what your ultimate life purpose might be.

This vibration usually becomes manifest only in the later part of your life. In the first half of life it tends to exist only as a potential. In these earlier years you live through many experiences that temper and define your character and aptitudes. Not until the age of 35 or 40 do most people live through enough life events to find their life purpose and develop it to the point where it becomes their main focus and direction. It is then that fulfillment comes. But this is usually achieved only after many false starts, and years of struggling to gain self-knowledge.

Finding your right place in life is gratifying. If you have not pushed through to this achievement, you can be dissatisfied and unhappy. You may feel at loose ends, without direction, rudderless and ill at ease. But if you have lived your life in accord with the purpose that was meant to be fulfilled in this life, you will find contentment and peace of mind.

What follows is the mature expression of your Power number. Mature development is not about living out someone else's idea of what you should be. It has more to do with honoring your own way of being in the world and moving from your own center. It is about trusting the process of unfoldment that exists within each of us and making this your guiding principle.

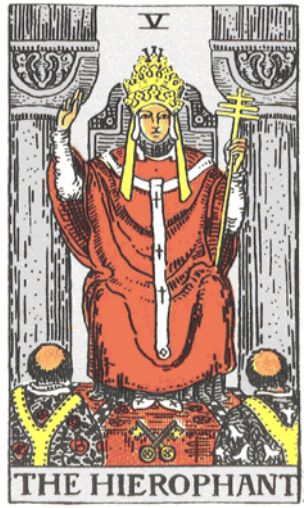

The total of your name and birthdate is 5.

A Power number of 5 signifies a life of freedom, variety and change. Fives attract situations that demand versatility and adaptability. Always open to new experiences, they seek out the curious and the unusual, and are constantly on the lookout for new fields to explore and new roads to travel. In some way embodying the archetype of the Trickster, they are unconventional, unpredictable, full of surprises, and excel at doing the unexpected. Not ones to tarry long, they tend toward impulsivity and depart in a flash if their interest is diverted elsewhere. Adventurous, enterprising and resourceful, they continually enliven their environment with energy and enthusiasm.

Fives are sociable and get on well with all kinds of people. Talking is one of their favorite activities. People interest them immensely, and they will spend hours chatting with strangers and friends alike.

As clever as they are with words, fives are also clever with their hands. They make excellent craftsmen, are known for their versatility, and are often amazingly dexterous, dazzling others with their creative handiwork.

Tarot Key 5: The Hierophant

To gain further insights about your Power number, it can help to look at the Tarot trump that corresponds to it. In your case, this is the Hierophant. Called the Pope in some decks, he wears a triple crown, which in metaphysical language represents the integration of body, mind, and spirit. This integration creates a deep faith in life, and an energetic desire to experience life to its fullest. The Hierophant is versatile, a generalist who can see many facets of life. This can lead to brilliant ideas and new interpretations. People on this vibration deal with people well, and, like the Pope, may have a sizable flock.

Your Karmic Lessons

Karma numbers are digits that are completely missing in the letters of your name as given at birth. Most people have one or more Karma numbers. These missing digits serve as a guide to the areas of your life and personality that may be lacking. Such areas will benefit from special attention. If you ignore these blind spots, life can have a painful way of making you notice them. This, however, can eventually spur you forward on the path to wisdom. When you develop yourself in these areas, you will feel much more whole and complete.

The number 2 is missing in your name.

With a Karma number of 2, you may lack patience and tend to be overly sensitive. You may have experiences where you are forced to learn to get along better with others.

The number 8 is missing in your name.

With an 8 Karma number, you are ambitious, but your judgment may not always be the best. You must learn the value of money, and find out how to use power responsibly.

Your Subconscious Response

Your Subconscious Response is related to how many Karma numbers you have. It shows the way you tend to react in emergencies, when you have no time to consult your intellect.

Your Subconscious Response number is 7.

When the going gets rough, you tend to become very analytical and may seem detached and unemotional. You are likely to suffer in silence. During these times you do best when you pray or meditate. Your tendency not to get personally involved may be appropriate in some situations, but not when other people are in great need.

Your Youth, Maturity and Later Years

So far, we've discussed the number vibrations that stay with you throughout your life. Now we move on to the three major periods of your life as shown by your Life Cycle numbers. These are derived from reducing the digits in your month, day and year of birth. The sum of the month digits describes the first period; the day, the second period; and the year, the third period.

Your First Life Cycle starts at birth and lasts until age 36.

Its number is 9.

This is a high vibration for a young person to bear. This is because 9 is not conducive to a sense of security, and because selflessness may be expected of you at a time in your development when it is natural to be selfish. There may be change and instability for you to cope with, and the air may be charged with emotional tensions that you are too young to understand. Your own needs as a child may be neglected, so that you do not know what to do with your own intense feelings. Some form of artistic expression can be a great help in sorting these feelings out, and a good education can provide some structure and resources to deal with life. Toward the end of this cycle you will most likely have gained enough maturity to feel more comfortable with the intense energies of a 9.

During the First Life Cycle, your Life Path number and your First Minor Challenge number are also especially important influences.

Your Second Life Cycle starts at age 36 and lasts until age 63.

Its number is 6.

More than most people, you need a middle life of settling down, building your nest and putting down roots. Your responsibilities to others are paramount during this time. Others will depend on you, so you must be strong and able to give advice and guidance. Your family life should now be in order if you are to accomplish your goals during this period. This is a perfect time for enjoying married life.

During this Life Cycle or the next, your Power number generally begins to manifest.

Your Third Life Cycle starts at age 63 and lasts until death.

Its number is 22/4.

A 22 vibration is a powerhouse to have as a last cycle, and it means that you must stay in the driver's seat. Don't accept any limitations on yourself, either self-imposed or from others. Think big, and put yourself into a position where you control a lot of the action. Though many people your age will want to sit back and reflect, you may be engaged in a steady effort to realize your highest potential.

You may instead opt to live out this cycle (at least sometimes) on a less demanding 4 vibration. Since a 4 cycle brings practical activity and ongoing discipline, you may look forward always to being busy and productive in your later years. At this time of your life, such a cycle works best if you have either found a job that means fulfillment rather than "work," or you have planned a financial freedom that allows you to work for fun.

Major Decision or Turning Points in Your Life

Your Turning Points or Pinnacles are also derived from your full birthdate. Each of them defines a period in your life and the special issues that you will face during that period. As their name suggests, Turning Points show points of choice where you need to make decisions. Besides showing the issues at stake, the Turning Point number indicates the choice that will be best for you. Turning Points are like tests that you must pass before proceeding forward. The happiness that you feel in a given Turning Point period depends on the choices you've made and the skills you've developed when faced with the previous Turning Point.

Your First Turning Point starts at birth and lasts until age 34.
Its number is 6.

This youthful Turning Point may call you to take on heavy domestic responsibilities at an early age, such that you feel denied a carefree childhood. If you shoulder these responsibilities with good grace, your reward may be love, security, protection, loyalty and sympathy, both given and received. This Turning Point may also take the form of an early marriage that comes when you are still really too young to settle down.

Your Second Turning Point starts at age 35 and lasts until age 44.
Its number is 1.

The next nine years of your life will test your ability to strike out on your own, to develop your own individuality, and to create something that is totally your own. To learn the lessons of this Turning Point, prepare either to work alone or to be the boss. Your reward will be recognition of your achievements in later periods.

Your Third Turning Point starts at age 45 and lasts until age 54.
Its number is 7.

This 7 vibration may mark a pause in the prime of your life as you turn inward to integrate your experiences and meditate on the meaning of it all. For some, this may be merely retreating from the demands of the world, but it is possible to make this period a true voyage to the sometimes scary but potentially rewarding places inside. If you complete this voyage successfully, you lay the foundation for an old age marked by true wisdom and the ability to give something of great value to the world.

Your Fourth Turning Point starts at age 55 and lasts until death.
Its number is 4.

In the last period of your life, a 4 vibration calls you make practical choices, and you will get a good feeling from putting your affairs in order. You may need to live on a tight budget, but if you approach it with the correct attitude, this need not feel like a great burden. You may be one of those for whom thrift is a pleasure and an entertainment. A steady routine of work can keep you on track, and if you so choose, you can derive deep satisfaction by leaving a legacy of tangible achievement.

The Challenges You Will Meet

Everyone is born with special lessons to be learned. Again, your full birth date has inherent in it two Minor Challenges that are usually presented to you earlier in life, and a Major Challenge that is lifelong but which you will probably get to master only later in life.

Challenges may at first present themselves to you as external obstacles to your progress, but they arise from the deficiencies that you are born with, parts that are lacking or underdeveloped. Once you can determine exactly what the weak link is, you can make a conscious effort to strengthen that trait within yourself. This takes willpower and may sometimes feel as if you are going against the grain, but it pays off abundantly in terms of progress and success in life. As you tackle each challenge, your fears are pushed back, your scope enlarges, and you feel more comfortable in the world.

Your First Minor Challenge number is 3.

The First Minor Challenge usually crops up early in life. When its number is 3, you will feel impeded until you learn to overcome the barriers to the free expression of your natural talents. You may need to overcome shyness and learn to express yourself clearly. Once you learn to relax with people, you may exhibit an unusual facility for expressing yourself in conversation and lending life and enjoyment to social situations. You should seize every opportunity to realize your creative potential, taking lessons when you can and letting enjoyment of what you are doing break down any barriers to your spontaneity.

Your Second Minor Challenge number is 7.

The Second Minor Challenge is about aspects of your character that you need to work on during your Second Life Cycle, from about ages 35 to 62. With a Challenge of 7, you may be so caught up in your inner life that you have a hard time connecting with the outer world. This could take the form of depression, in which your energy is unavailable to you because it is working deep beneath the surface of your consciousness. It could also work out as pursuing an impossible purity, which causes you to feel so deeply critical of the world that you shun it. When you learn to come out of your ivory tower and give more of yourself to others, the world will feel like a much lovelier place to you.

Your Major Challenge number is 4.

You face your Major Challenge throughout life. Most likely, however, you will find yourself needing to do the most work on it during your Third Life Cycle, after the lesser challenges have been met. With a Challenge number of 4, you may run into difficulties either through getting lost in details or through not paying enough attention to them. The challenge here is to learn to work in a balanced manner, pacing yourself and fitting the job you do to the requirements of the situation.
